Department Attends its First National Encampment

By Department of the Southwest Commander John Conrad

The Department of the Southwest attended its first National Encampment as a department (having previously attended as Camps at Large), in Springfield, Illinois, from August 11-14. We had 4 delegates attend: DC John Conrad, CC Bob McCord, DS/T Dale Enlow, and DGRO David Jackson. It was the first encampment for Brothers Dale and David. Sister Paula Vessels attended the Auxiliary Encampment.

Conrad, Enlow, Jackson, and Vessels arrived a day early to take a driving tour around the Springfield area, including Lincoln’s Tomb, the Illinois war memorials at Oak Hill Cemetery, GAR founder Dr. Benjamin Stephenson’s grave in Petersburg, the reconstructed settlement of New Salem (where Lincoln spent his early adult years), the National DUCVW museum, and the current State Capitol building. The next day, they took a walking tour (led by none other than General Grant and Captain Robert Todd Lincoln themselves!) of Lincoln’s home, the old State House where Lincoln served in the legislature (with fantastic entertainment and a presentation by Lincoln’s old law partner, Billy Herndon), and the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum (a must see!)

The 2 days of business meetings were held Friday and Saturday, and included spirited debate on the topic of Memorial Day/Decoration Day, many procedural and regulation votes, and reports from all officers, committees, and departments. It is interesting to see the inner workings of the Order and how it gets its business done. We were proud to display our department flag alongside those of the other departments! The only contested national election was for Treasurer, which was very emotional and resulted in the election of a new treasurer, David McReynolds from Tennessee.

The Department delegates had a dinner at a great brewery restaurant Friday night, and got caught in a deluge that flooded most of the streets surrounding the restaurant. It took hours to get back to the hotel! After Saturday’s business session, we all joined in the Allied Orders Banquet, a gala which featured the leaders of all 5 Allied Orders and the commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

The next National Encampment is in Lansing, Michigan August 10-13, 2017. Brothers who are interested in attending should let their Camp Commanders and Secretaries know before March, so they can be appointed delegates at our Department Encampment.

August 13, 2016, Camp Meeting Information

The regular quarterly meeting of Picacho Peak Camp No. 1 and the Auxiliary was held at noon on August 13, 2016, at the Deer Valley Airport Restaurant. This was also our annual joint meeting with the Sisters of the Margaret Warner Wood Tent No. 1.

Program speaker: Picacho Peak Camp Brother David Kampf gave an exceptionally good talk (aren't they all?) about Newspapers in the Civil War. Here is what was covered:

He began with a description of the invention of paper, and how it can depend on cotton rags by the 1800's, and the development of wood pulp paper thereafter. The growth of newspapers was driven by three major reasons:

1. Public schools - increased literacy among the population.
2. Telegraph - transmission of national & international news invented by Samuel Morse in 1844.
3. The age of Steam! supplying the power needed for larger presses to feed the greater circulation demanded by increased literacy and war news.

Civil War breaks out! A war between the North & South, and also between competing newspapers, many times supplying lurid & imaginative stories based on camp & barroom rumors, written by the Bohemian Brigade, the reporters & artist in the field. Cozy connections between the press and certain generals & politicians (what has changed?) furnished and fed the public's demand for war news. The love/hate relationship between the press & the military can be best summed up by General William T. Sherman's remarks:

"I think I know what military fame is; to be killed on the field of battle and have your name misspelled in the newspapers."

"If I had my choice I would kill every reporter in the world, but I am sure we would be getting reports from Hell before breakfast."

Bad news sells newspapers, and the Civil War was as bad as it could have been.

Brother David had several examples of original newspapers from the war period for display & discussion.

New Camp Brothers:

Ronald E. Gray of Sun City West, AZ was approved for membership in the SUVCW and our Camp.

Brother Gray's Civil War ancestor is his great-grandfather Joseph Langendodrf, Co L., 2nd Regiment, Ohio Heavy Artillery.

Richard S. Burke of Phoenix, AZ was also approved for membership in the SUVCW and our Camp.

Brother Burke's Civil War ancestor is his great-great-grandfather Brigadier General John Homer Howe, 14th Illinois Infantry, Headquarters.

Welcome Brothers Gray and Burke!

October 22, 2016, Camp Meeting Information

The General U. S. Grant Camp No. 3 October 22nd Camp meeting was opened at 1:00 p.m. by Camp Commander David Swanson with 12 Brothers and guests in attendance.

Camp officer reports:

Camp Commander Swanson thanked the Brothers who were present for their membership in the camp and for participating in the upcoming camp officer elections. We are the youngest Camp in the Department and everyone is doing a great job!

Brother Bob Archibald gave a very comprehensive overview of his activities as they relate to grave registrations for the Camp. (See more information under the “activities” section.)

Donation by Brother Tim Prater: The Thompson Center 50 caliber black powder rifle, donated to the Camp by Brother Tim Prater, and to be raffled off for our benefit and the Department’s (50-50 split) was discussed. Brother Rich Rice inspected the rifle, made a few minor repairs, and the rifle is in great shape. We decided that three raffle tickets will be mailed to each Department Brother in January and the drawing will be held during the Department Annual Encampment on March 11, 2016. The cost of the tickets will be: one for $20, two for $35, and three for $50.

Donation by Brother Jack Van Deusen: Brother Van Deusen donated five beautifully hand crafted wooden jars with lids, made by him, to be sold at the Encampment; one will be given as a second place. And since the Department is in need of a gavel, he made and donated one to the Department.

Thank you Brother Jack!

Camp officer elections: The following were elected as General U.S. Grant Camp No. 3 Camp officers for 2017. They will be installed at our January 2017 meeting.

Senior Vice Commander: David Swanson
Junior Vice Commander: Dale Enlow
Secretary/Treasurer: Jerry Bloom

Appointed officers: The following Brothers have volunteered to hold the following “appointed” 2017 officer offices:

Patriotic Instructor: Jim Heller
Chaplain: David McCormack
Color Bearer: Bill Smith
Historian: Dale Enlow
Civil War Memorials officer: Bob Archibald

Delegates to the Department of the Southwest Encampment: Rich Rice, Tim Prater, and Ed Steinback.

Alternate Delegates: Brothers of the Camp.

Program speaker: We were privileged to have Brother Rich Rice give a presentation regarding the Zouaves. Rich provided an outstanding history and overview of the various Zouaves units from throughout the world. Did you know that there were Confederate Zouave units or that there were early Zouave units in countries such as Poland, Spain, Brazil, and France? Many just associate the Zouaves with Elmer Ellsworth (who was also discussed) and his New York “Fire Zouaves” but he and his unit were just the tip of the Zouave iceberg. Rich gave a splendid presentation.

General News and Information

Arizona's Last Union Civil War Soldier

On December 5, 1946, almost 70 years ago, Arizona's last Union Civil War soldier, Parker Louis Gordon, died and was interred in Greenwood Cemetery in Phoenix. Below is an article that was published in the SUVCW Banner:

ARIZONA HONORS ITS LAST UNION CIVIL WAR SOLDIER

Submitted by David A. Swanson, Camp Commander, Picacho Peak Camp #1, Arizona Camp-at-Large

Brothers of Picacho Peak Camp #1, Arizona Camp-at-Large, proclaimed Private Parker Louis Gordon to be Arizona's Last Union Civil War Soldier during a ceremony on November 19, 2005, at the Greenwood Cemetery, Phoenix, Arizona.

Representatives from the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, the National Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Sons of Confederate Veterans and an honor guard composed of members from the Arizona Civil War Council were present along with SUVCW Brothers from Picacho Peak Camp.

Private Gordon's great-grandson and Brother of Picacho Peak Camp, Richard McNeil, along with his wife Jamie and his sister Susan Cheyney, were guests of honor. Dick had the original drum Parker used during the war on display in front of his crypt.

Private Parker Louis Gordon, son of Henry S. Gordon of Franklin, Pa., and Rebecca Young Gordon, from the United Kingdom, was born at Steelville, Ill.

On Sept. 1, 1847. He ran away from home several times during the Civil War in an attempt to join the Union Army and finally became a drummer boy with an unknown military unit at age 16.

On February 15, 1865, he officially entered military service with the 154th Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, where he stayed for the remainder of the war. After the Civil War he eventually moved to Phoenix where he retired as a grocer.

He died in Phoenix on December 5, 1946, at the age of 99 and was interred in the original mausoleum at Greenwood Cemetery in Phoenix.

Parker L. Gordon was a member of the Long Beach California GAR Post number 181 and was a delegate to the reunion of Union and Confederate veterans at Gettysburg, Pa, in 1937. Before his death, he was one of two surviving members of the post.

General U. S. Grant Camp Brother Paul Halvorson supplied the flowing information about his great-great uncle Kittle Halvorson.

“On September 5, 1863, at the age of only 16, Kittel lied about his age to enlist in the war at Winchester, Wisconsin to serve in Co. “C”, First Wisconsin Heavy Artillery. Because of his young age there is speculation that he was assigned as a drummer boy in his regiment. He was discharged September 21, 1865 at Nashville, Tennessee.

“He was part of a very famous battle just three months earlier—Missionary Ridge. Just the name blood run cold for those who know their Civil War history. The ridge protected the town of Chattanooga, Tennessee from Union Troops, and was considered an impenetrable natural fortress. Some of Kittel’s comrades had taken out a personal loan in order to purchase the new repeating rifles—hard to come by, but tremendously effective in battle. Sacrificing pay wasn’t hard to do if a soldier could avoid sacrificing his life in the grisly conflict. (An interesting note on Kittel’s Muster-out Roll report—remarks: Retained under Government order 101. 1-Musket and accoutrements, $6.00.)

“Kittle found himself in the middle of battle under the leadership of Major General Rosecrans. Missionary Ridge was the war’s first major rout of rebel forces and was not accomplished because of Rosecrans’ leadership, but in spite of it. Major Bragg was confident of the position his confederate forces held on Missionary Ridge, but his confidence possibly made him careless. His orders were to fire a volley into the attacking army, then fall back to a safer position. His orders somehow did not reach the front line troops at the bottom of the mountain, because Rosecrans’ Union troops attacked with wild ferocity fueled by bitter memories of the recent defeat, in September just three months before, at the battle of Chickamauga where they lost over 16,000 of their comrades to Bragg’s troops. The Confederates, unsure of their orders, reacted in confusion. Some held their ground, others retreated. The front line troops became demoralized when their back-up forces apparently began to desert them; soon all who were able were running pell-mell up the mountainside. The Union soldiers, filled with triumphant elation, pursued the enemy up the mountainside, forgetting Rosecrans’ orders to stop their advancement as soon as they established a position at the foot of the ridge. When the unauthorized charge began, Union officers at first tried to order their men back, but soon began to join their men giving hot pursuit when the victory-fervor swept over them too. . . . Rosecrans’ orders were completely abandoned by his troops and they took the ‘impenetrable’ Confederate fortification on Missionary Ridge. On that day, November 25, 1863 he successful charge ended the battle in an hour. Among those who made it to the top was Kittel Halvorson. . .”

Thank you Brother Paul Halvorson!
